

The Emerald bay can accommodate 8 paying guests per cruise. We do not allow overnight stay on the yacht for security and safety reasons but you can hire the yacht for a week if you wish and we will arrange accommodation and transfers to the marina for you and separate itineraries for each day.

Sample Itinerary – a typical day

All times are approximate:

- 09.00 - Guests arrive at Universal Marina meeting at the Café Lulworth for bacon baguettes/croissant/tea/coffee/orange juice.
- 09.30 – An introduction to our skipper Ian Buchelle and safe escort to the yacht for a safety briefing onboard
- 10.00 – Set off a gentle sail to allow all novices to get used to what happens and what needs to be done on board.
- 13.00 - Lunch. Most of our clients prefer to utilise a decent restaurant for a relaxing mid-day meal and glass of fine wine. For example we can sail up the Beaulieu River (subject to tidal times) and weigh anchor at the Master Builders House Hotel.
- 14.30 – Fed and watered you will re-join the boat for afternoon sailing.
- 16.30 – The Emerald Bay docks once again at Universal Marina
- 17.00 – Drinks alongside and reflect on your experiences throughout the day.

Flexibility

The benefit of using a company like Legend Cruises Limited is our wealth of local experience and our flexibility. We can tailor your chartered cruising experience to your exacting requirements. You may wish to go to a specific restaurant, require transfers from your hotel, take in a round of golf – either way the choice is yours. We work very closely with our clients to provide the perfect day.

For team building exercises we can set a series of tasks/tests to assess your seamanship skills, whether it is navigation, rigging or tying complicated knots. Our skipper can assess your skills and we can even arrange awards or certificates for the best stand-in skipper!

Whether you require a gruelling examination of your corporate teams mental and practical capabilities or you simply wish to relax and cruise around the Solent with a nice chilled glass of wine in hand, Legend Cruises Ltd will pander to your every wish, since our service is merely an extension of the luxurious yacht you will be sailing on.

We hope you enjoy sailing with us.
